

LAWYERS CONCERNED FOR LAWYERS

Confidential Support for Legal Professionals

LCL JUNE CLE PROGRAMS

ETHICS, MENTAL HEALTH , AND SOCIAL MEDIA IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Tuesday, June 15, 2021

4:00 P.M. – 5:00 P.M. via Zoom

1.0 Ethics CLE credit applied for (Course 371929)

Presented by: Bob Schuneman

Even before the COVID-19 Pandemic, lawyers relied heavily on smartphones and related technologies. Since the start of the pandemic, attorney reliance on technology has increased exponentially, becoming a necessary part of the practice of law today. This program highlights cultural over-reliance on technology while exploring potential ethical and well-being issues raised when lawyers become over-reliant on their technology.

HELP FOR COLLEAGUES IN CRISIS; RECOGNIZING AND RESPONDING TO IMPAIRMENT AND OTHER CHALLENGES IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Tuesday, June 22, 2021

4:00 P.M.—5:00 P.M. via Zoom

1.0 Elimination of Bias CLE Credit applied for (Course 371931)

Presented by: Joan Bibelhausen and Bob Schuneman

This program is designed for colleagues and managers who may observe changes in behavior that give rise to concerns. It discusses how to recognize and obtain help when you, a work colleague, or another professional colleague may have a substance use, mental health, or other issue that affects behavior, conduct, and performance. Topics include understanding the issues, special considerations for remote work, approaching the lawyer (including interventions), arranging assistance such as treatment, and practice management issues during and following a reduced work schedule or leave of absence. Colleagues can save careers, families, and lives by taking action.
